

I support RM-10352.

As proposed, 160 mtrs would then conform to existing band plans on other amateur segments. There is as much need to provide for a narrow band, weak signal, segment on 160 as there is on the other segments.